Description

Hi Moodle Support,

I'm attempting to finalize my grades but the totals seem a bit inflated. Some folks have more than 100% but there was no extra credit, etc.

Can you lend guidance?

Thanks, thom

Hi Thom,

Final grades are now displaying as a percentage. Note that edit mode needs to be turned off when looking on the Grader Report page or else the final grade will revert back to the "real" mark.

To update how the final grade is displayed, I went to the Gradebook Setup page and clicked "edit" and then "edit settings" on the top line where the course title is indicated:

Next, I clicked on "show more" under the Category total heading, and then updated the "grade display type" to percentage:

Please let me know if there is anything else I can help with.

Best,

Brad

Hi Thom,

Your gradebook is set up to display the course total as the "real" mark rather than a percentage, which is why you're seeing marks over 100. Would you like me to update it to display as a percentage instead?

Best,

Brad
